crystal water gushes forth from the foot of a mountain and after running a short distance flows into Bison creek. A number of delightful groves, shrubbery, tall pines and spruce are scattered over this park, while abundant and luxuriant grass and wild flowers prompt the loiterer to rest. Tall mountains and deep ravines and silvery steams in each make the spot a favored one for loyers of landscape and a field for the artist and poet. This new resort will be formally thrown open next Sunday by a grand excursion and pienic under the auspices of the Butte Tturn Verein. A large number of men have been busily at work for the past two weeks beautifying the spot. A dancing pavillon 76x30 feet, a bar room 14x30 feet, a dining hall 50x30 feet, with kitchen and pantry besides numerous tables and benches under the trees, swings, horixontal bars, teeters, flying Dutchmen, etc., have been erected. two-year-olds, $40 entrance with $200 Derby Stakes, $50 entrance with $250 added. Close June 1, when first payment of entrance will be due. Address secretary for information. A. A. NEWBERY, President, B. C. VAN HOUTEN, Secretary. Business Notice.

The public are hereby notified that I have this 20th day of May, 1889, sold all of my right, title and interest in the Scarff's restaurant, situate on Grand street, to Fairbank and Sutermeister. They are gentlemen well qualified to take charge of the business, and I sincerely sak that the liberal patronage extended to me will be given to them.

J. W. SCARFF.

We, the undersigned, have purchased from J. W. Scarff his restaurant at No. 106 Grand street, near First National Bank, and propose to run it under the name of The Criterion Cafe, etrictly first class and upon the European plan. We solicit the continuance of all former patronage given to Mr. Scarff.

FAIRBANK & SUTERMEISTER. Notice of Dissolution of Partnership.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership here-tofore existing between the undersigned, under the firm name and style of Dwyer & Mullen, is this day discoived by mutual consent, Mr. Dwyer dis-posing of his interest in said business to Mr. Mullen. Mulien.

Outstanding claims against said firm will be paid by Mr. Mulien, who alone is authorized to collect and receipt for all claims due said firm.

Dated Helena, Montana, May E, 1899.
